

Visual Teaching and Practice

2nd December 2022

Malmö

Description

VMx is a visual methods mini-conference celebrating visual teaching and practice. Bringing together researchers, educators, students and practitioners, the programme offers methods workshops, an education panel & presentation and a private viewing of an activist arts exhibition. Attendance is free of charge and includes lunch and a reception. The mini-conference is organised as a collaboration between Linnaeus University, Malmö University and Folkets Konsthall, and will take place at the School of Arts and Communication (K3), Malmö University & the Drömmar på Månen exhibition. There are limited places, so please register here if you would like to join us.

Schedule

- 9.45 Coffee (K3 Studio, Niagara building, Malmö University)
- 10.00 Welcome – Chris High, Joshka Wessels & Henrik Teleman
- 10.15 Workshop: Participatory visual and immersive methods: show and tell (Joshka Wessels)
- 11.15 Break
- 11.30 Workshop: Participatory instant messaging with Whats App: demo & discussion (Chris High)
- 12.30 Lunch – free of charge
- 13.30 Panel: Making blended learning work (Tobias Denskus, Micke Rundberg, Ida Qvarnström, Louise Johansson)
- 14.30 Presentation: The FutureAbility project (Chris High)
- 15.00 Bus transfer to Drömmar på månen (Celsiusgatan 40, Malmö)
- 15.30 Drömmar på månen Exhibition & reception (Henrik Teleman)
- 16.30 Finish

The event is supported by:

FutureAbility – An ERASMUS+ project funded by the EU which includes Linnaeus University.

Vad Hände Sedan – A postkodlotteriet funded project, hosted by Folkets Konsthall.

Communication for Development - Master's level programme at Malmö University.

International Visual Methods Conference – The call for the next conference in Rome in 2023 is here.

For more details about the programme, please follow the VMx Malmö Facebook page.